

Deddington,
Banbury, Oxfordshire

Deddington, Banbury, Oxfordshire.

An attractive and thoughtfully renovated cottage finished to an extremely high standard throughout. Accommodation includes a stylish kitchen/dining room, sitting room, cloakroom, two double bedrooms, each benefitting from its own en-suite facility. The property has two parking spaces with EV connection.

Kings Court is a unique development of 4 village cottages located in the centre of the picturesque village of Deddington. This exclusive development of surprisingly spacious homes offers all the benefits of modern living within an historic market village and presents a great opportunity for those seeking an idyllic lifestyle in one of Oxfordshire's most sought after locations.

Deddington is a charming and historic Oxfordshire village, celebrated for its attractive stone cottages, traditional market square and strong sense of community. At its heart stands the 13th-century parish church, alongside a selection of well-regarded pubs and inns, including The Deddington Arms, conveniently located nearby.

The village enjoys a peaceful yet vibrant atmosphere, with excellent leisure and sporting facilities and a popular monthly farmers' market—one of the largest in the county—drawing visitors from across the region. Remnants of its medieval heritage can be found at the site of Deddington Castle, offering a fascinating glimpse into the past.

Situated approximately five miles south of Banbury, Kings Court is ideally placed for access to a range of notable destinations such as Soho Farmhouse, RH at Aynho Park and Bicester Village. Combining rural charm with excellent connectivity, Deddington offers an appealing lifestyle in a welcoming and well-connected village setting.
