

Steeple Aston, Bicester,
Oxfordshire

Steeple Aston, Bicester, Oxfordshire.

A four-bedroom detached home occupying an enviable corner plot, featuring a detached double garage and additional parking via a sweeping driveway. The property offers significant potential for renovation and development.

Set in the heart of North Oxfordshire, Steeple Aston is a highly regarded village known for its strong sense of community, attractive period homes and quintessential English character. The village offers everyday amenities including a well-regarded primary school, village shop, post office, public house and active village hall, all surrounded by gently rolling countryside and scenic walking routes. Its traditional stone houses, historic church and village green create a timeless setting that appeals to families and professionals alike.

Despite its rural charm, Steeple Aston is exceptionally well connected. The nearby market town of Bicester provides excellent shopping, dining and rail links, including fast services to London Marylebone, while the M40 offers swift access to Oxford, London and the Midlands. Combining peaceful village living with outstanding connectivity, Steeple Aston represents an ideal balance of countryside tranquillity and modern convenience.
